Five Minutes Before The Translation...

The promise you must always look and prepare for

John 14:3:
And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

Revelation 4:1-2
After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven; and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter. And immediately I was in the spirit:

If we have Jesus at death, we will have eternal life.

Hebrews 12:2:
Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God

Time will eventually come to Five minutes before the translation of the bride, hoping you are one. There will be an unimaginable joy in our hearts about our departure. The world will not have any attraction for us. You will find yourself separating from the world joyfully. The fruit of the Spirit will be made manifest in your life. You will find yourself away from every appearance of evil and sin; and holding fast to holiness and purity. A new found peace, love and joy will grip you as the dead walk among us. A sign that tells you time is up. Remember the dead in Christ will rise first. Those who need car and house keys, ask for them before we are taken up in the Last flight out of this world for the bride.

I would like to have all these fruits of the spirit within me also.

Galatians 5:22-23:
But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

Scroll 23-2 - last paragraph: There is no beginning or ending with God. So there is no time for Him, only man has time limit (cycle) and this about finished. God gave man 70-72 years to live or slightly longer

At the rapture the body changes, our time stops and blends into eternity

1st John 3:2-3:
Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is

And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

1st Corinthians 15:52-53: In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. ----- 1st Thessalonians, 4:16-17: For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

We've never been this close to that moment.

Matthew 24:40-42, 44:
Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

(a time limit). If we were eternal like God, the time factor would disappear. If we have Jesus at death we will change out of this time zone and step into the eternal zone (life). At the rapture the body changes, our time stops and blends into eternity (no time limit).

Better to buy some fruits now...

Matthew 25:10:
And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage; and the door was shut.

If Jesus isn't back by then

Hebrews 11:5-6: By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. (what will be your testimony five minutes before the translation, remember Enoch) ----- Philippians 3:20-21: For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.
