SCROLL #70 - The one who humbles himself in praising the Lord will be anointed above his brethren, he shall feel and walk like a king, spiritually speaking the ground will sing under him and a cloud of love shall engulf him. Why are there such secrets in praise, because that is why we were created to praise the Lord of Host. Behold saith the Almighty, praise is the guardian of the soul and the protector of the body. By praising the Lord, you will enter into the center of His will for your life. Praise is the wine of the spirit, revealing hidden secrets and revelations. He liveth in us according to our praises. By praising the Lord you will respect others and talk much less about them as the Lord delivers you in satisfaction.
